

Map compass PILOT – nice & easy

Map Compass PILOT – light, acrylic, compass on the mono-block baseplate is perfect for work with maps and orienteering exercises. Together with a good topographical map of the area you are and map compass PILOT compass you can be sure you're never lost.

Product Description

Map Compass PILOT

Light, acrylic compass on the mono-block baseplate is perfect for work with maps and orienteering exercises. Together with a good topographical map of the area you are and map compass PILOT you can be sure you're never lost. Light, simple and nonflexible baseplate makes PILOT best tool for working with maps.

You can find directions of the world, and determine and draw positions on the maps. Perfect device for scouts, runners, trackers and all of the outdoor enthusiasts.

Magnetized needle

Magnetized needle is immersed in non freeze liquid smoothly works even in very low temperatures. Needle is supplied with the declination marks. Needle is marked with luminous dot, so you can easily read the North direction even when it's dark.

Housing with orienting marks

Housing with orienting marks rotates when the dial is turned, it is to orient a compass to a map. When it's dark South, West, and East are marked with luminous dots, North is marked with luminous double line.

Orienting lines

Orienting lines within the compass housing that run parallel to the orienting arrow.

Baseplate

Baseplate of the map compass PILOT is supplied with:

- Orienting arrow – non-magnetic arrow within the compass baseplate.
- scales: millimeters (mm), meters, map scale 1:25000, 1:50 000, inches
- pointers (rounds and triangle)
- magnifying glass
- yellow leash for easy carrying.

